

Setze much oder many vor die Substantive.

_____ food

_____ sugar

_____ dogs

_____ women

_____ milk

_____ birthdays

_____ pictures

_____ pens

_____ cups

_____ rice

_____ numbers

_____ bananas

_____ peas

_____ fingers

_____ money

_____ hair

_____ coins

_____ noise

Ergänze die Fragen durch much oder many.

How _____ windows are there in the classroom?

How _____ time have we got?

How _____ money have you got?

How _____ children are in that room?

How _____ does that game cost?

How _____ water will we need?

How _____ apples are there in the bag?

How _____ subjects do you have at school?

much + yonnu
①

Übersetze ins Englische und verwende dabei much oder many.

Sie gingen auf viele Partys.

Sie hatten viel Spaß.

Setze much, many, a lot of oder lots of passend ein. Hier sind teilweise mehrere Lösungen möglich.

How _____ eggs are there in the fridge?

Jane hasn't got _____ time.

Do you know _____ English words?

There was too _____ wood in the fireplace.

How _____ lessons do you have on Friday?

You cannot see _____ stars tonight.

There is too _____ water in the bucket.

How _____ brothers has Timmy got?

There were _____ ships at the harbour.

He put too _____ salt in the food.

Grandpa hasn't got _____ hair.

I have never seen so _____ cats before.

There are too _____ poor people in the world.

much + many ②